Intimations of Collusion Between Operators and Navy Officials.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, D. C., February 21 .-Virginia's coal production is threatened with serious injury because the House to-day adopted an amendment forbids the government from hereafter spending a single dollar for coal ply, an amendment was placed in the Pacific Ocean, and authorizing the department to buy coal in British Columbia if the American dealers on the Pacific coast should arbitrarily raise

The amendment was framed by Representative Humphrey, of Washington, who opened the session by declaring that the Navy Department used Pocahontas coal exclusively, and has never given Pacific coast a complete test. Mr. Humphrey insisted that Pacine coast coal is nearly, if not quite, as efficient for steaming as coal from the Pocahontas field. Representative Underwood, of Alabama, declared that "the closest corombination between these Pocahontas cal people and the Navy Department, and this has been true for twenty

The mother does not live who would not do all in her power to keep her child healthy, but often she does not know how. So when a doctor of standing points the way all can afford to listen.

It is an accepted fact that nine out of ten of the troubles of infants and children is intestinal. You notice it by the fact that the child is constipated, it belches, is peevish and cries. Don't give a remedy that contains an oplate, because the child will get in the habit of needing it, and don't become alarmed and run at once for a doctor.

Try a scientific laxative first. Give a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the remedy that is intended for the use of children. It is mild, gentle and non-griping. The remedy is absolutely pure and is guaranteed in every particular. Mrs. Toomey, of Emings-

Winston-Salem, N. C., February 21.—

After a desperate battle Sheriff Fletcher, of Yadkin county, assisted by a posse, at midnight last night arrested Moses Speaks, the man who killed his wife and son-in-law, William Miller, at High Point, on Saturday. Speaks was caught at the home of his brother, A. R. Speaks, near the Wilkes county line. Speaks, who is insane, became desperate when the sheriff told him he had come after him. He drew the same butcher knife Cars leave Manchesier, Sevent' and Perry Streets, for Petersburg.

OF HIS FIRST WIFE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, February 21.—No settle-ment between Lina Cavalieri and ment between Lina Cavalleri and "Sheriff Bob" Chanler can be concluded, with respect to the latter's property, without first having the sanction of Mrs. Julia Chamberlain Chanler, first upon the Chanler real estate in New York City and Dutchess county, and said there was still pending in the Supreme Court of New York the applica-cation made last fall for a receiver for the properties owned by Chanler. "No settlement between Mr. Chanler and Cavalleri has been reached," Frederic N. Watriss. "Beyond this I cannot make any statement except to admit that we would know if the negotiations had reached a definite con-clusion." Sidney Harris, counsel for Chapler, said: "I hope that there will be a set-tlement reached between Mr. Chanler tlement reached between Mr. Chanler and Mmc. Cavalleri within a few weeks." That the diva and her husband were near an amicable adjustment of their differences a month ago was made known by a friend of the Chanler family. The settlement papers were drawn up and were submitted to counsel in this country for Cavalleri. Oreste Cavalleri, brother of the opera singer, arrived in New York City about the time counsel for Cavalieri refused to sign the settlement papers submit-ted by Chanler's counsel. Oreste Cavalieri is reported to have recently returned to Paris. The reason why the first Mrs. Chanler is an impor-
